3.2 State Championship Competition Rules

3.2.1 Rules for 11-12 year boys and 11-12 year girls

- 3.2.1.1 Matters not covered in these rules and conditions shall be governed by the National Rugby League Rugby League Laws of Modified Games and by the NRL Safe Play Code. Special dispensation has been given by the NRL to modify the first receiver and dummy half vest rule, removing the requirement for teams to change vest-wearers at halftime.
- 3.2.1.2 The QRL rule on compression garments will apply.
- 3.2.1.3 The QSS 10-12 years rugby league shall exercise and authorise all necessary control over intrastate carnivals, and no variation from these Rules and Conditions shall be made without the written approval of that League.
- 3.2.1.4 Any other matters not referred to in these competition procedures shall be dealt with in accordance to the Queensland School Sport competition procedures.
- 3.2.1.5 Teams shall be limited to a maximum of 17 players. A list of players and officials will be forwarded to the championship convenor.
- 3.2.1.6 Players may be interchanged at any time.
- 3.2.1.7 Each team shall supply and use its own jerseys which shall be numbered internationally on the back, with the numbers being at least 25 cm high, in such manner as to be distinctively visible from the sidelines. Numbers on the front of the jersey are optional. The major colour of the jerseys shall be that registered with Queensland School Sport as the regional colour.
- 3.2.1.8 Each player must wear the same number jersey throughout the championship irrespective of their position on the field.
- 3.2.1.9 If a player kicks for goal twice in a game before all other players on the field have had a turn at kicking, any points scored from the kick will not be counted to the team score. If such a breach does occur, it should be dealt with immediately if possible. However, if it is only detected later, the two points will still be deducted.
- 3.2.1.10 All team members and officials shall be present at the match venue at least 30 minutes prior to the time set for the commencement of their match.
- 3.2.1.11 Each match shall consist of two halves each of 20 minute duration with an interval of five minutes between halves.
- 3.2.1.12 Only players and officials are allowed in the playing area and team benches at any time.
- 3.2.1.13 Tied results:
 - 3.2.1.13.1 The relative positions of teams shall be determined by competition points which shall be allotted on the basis of two points for a win, one point for a draw, and zero points for a loss.
 - 3.2.1.13.2 In cases where teams finish equal on points (two for a win, one for a draw and zero for a loss), after the pool stage, the following procedure will be used, in order, to break the deadlock:

- i) Head to head (if there are two teams tied and they played each other)*
- ii) Points for and against difference
- iii) Points for
- iv) Tries scored

* If there are more than two teams tied, the Head to Head will not be used

3.2.1.13.3 Boys — progression from day four today five and from day five today six requires a winner from each game on days four and five. If a game is drawn on day four or day five, the following procedure will be used, in order, to decide the winner:

- i) Most tries scored in the game
- ii) First try scored in the game
- iii) Most penalties received in the game
- iv) First penalty received in the game
- v) Higher-ranked team after the pool stage of the championship (day three)

Girls — if the competition requires a winner for progression from one round to the next (e.g. semi-final to final), the following procedure will be used, in order, to decide the winner:

- i) Most tries scored in the game
- ii) First try scored in the game
- iii) Most penalties received in the game
- iv) First penalty received in the game
- v) Higher-ranked team after the pool stage of the championship.

3.2.1.13.4 In the final if scores are level at full time, the teams shall be declared joint winners of the championship. No extra time shall be played to determine the winner

3.2.2 Rules – Vic Jensen 10-11 years:

- 3.2.2.1 Matters not covered in these Rules and conditions shall be governed by the national Rugby League Rugby League Laws of Modified Games and by the NRL Safe Play Code. Special dispensation has been given by the NRL to modify the first receiver and dummy half vest rule, removing the requirement for teams to change vest-wearers at halftime.
- 3.2.2.2 The QRL rule on compression garments will apply.
- 3.2.2.3 The QSS 10-12 years RL shall exercise and authorise all necessary control over intrastate carnivals, and no variation from these rules and conditions shall be made without the written approval of that League.
- 3.2.2.4 Any other matters not referred to in these competition procedures shall be dealt with in accordance to the Queensland School Sport competition procedures.

- 3.2.2.5 The QSS 10-12 years RL committee shall exercise and authorise all necessary control over the Vic Jensen 11 years carnival, and no variation from these competition procedures shall be made without the written approval of that committee.
- 3.2.2.6 Matters pertaining to the rules of the game not covered in these competition procedures shall be governed by the Australian Rugby Football League's Rugby League Laws of Modified Games and by the Australian Rugby League Safe Play Code.
- 3.2.2.7 Teams shall be limited to a maximum of 15 players. A list of players and officials shall be forwarded to the championship convenor.
- 3.2.2.8 Tied Results:
- 3.2.2.8.1 The relative positions of teams shall be determined by competition points which shall be allotted on the basis of two points for a win, one point for a draw, and zero points for a loss.
- 3.2.2.8.2 In cases where teams finish equal on points (two for a win, one for a draw and zero for a loss), after the pool stage, the following procedure will be used, in order, to break the deadlock:
- i) Head to head (if there are two teams tied and they played each other)*
 - ii) Points for and against difference
 - iii) Points for
 - iv) Tries scored
- * If there are more than two teams tied, the Head to Head will not be used
- 3.2.2.8.3 After the pool games teams will play cross pool games as per the draw.
- 3.2.2.8.4 In the final if scores are level at full time, the teams shall be declared joint winners of the championship. No extra time shall be played to determine the winner.
- 3.2.2.9 During the "athletics" program (sprints/relays) of the carnival, the following guidelines will apply:
- 3.2.2.9.1 The relay race will be held after the last game on Day 1 of the carnival.
- 3.2.2.9.2 All 15 players will run in the relay. If any team has fewer than 15 players available, one or more of the players in that team will run twice so that the team runs 15 legs of the relay.
- 3.2.2.9.3 The 'baton' will be a fully-inflated mod-size football. Each player will start from the goal line and run one length of the field (subject to 3.2.2.9.2 above). Players may begin running before they receive the ball, but the pass must take place between the 10m line and the goal line.
- 3.2.2.9.4 Each team will have only one representative in the sprint race. This player will not compete in the team relay. The start will be done using the "beach flags" style (i.e. facing away from the ball, lying on stomach, hands on top of each other with chin resting on top of both hands, forearms / elbows on the dead ball line with the legs straight out on the ground and with ankle touching).

3.2.3 Stoppages in play:

3.2.3.1 After one minute of injury time has elapsed, to commence from when the referee whistles injury time, the clock stops.

3.2.3.2 An official of each team shall, prior to the commencement of the championship, advise the championship convener of the name of one adult person who shall be allowed, in the event of injury to a player of that team, to encroach onto the playing field.

3.2.3.3 In the event of more than one player being injured, those children must be treated immediately.

3.2.4 Blood bin:

3.2.4.1 No player is to be on the field with an exposed, bleeding wound.

3.2.4.2 Blood-stained jerseys must be replaced immediately and cannot be reused until after they have been laundered.

3.2.4.3 It is recommended that all teams have at least two spare jerseys for blood bin use.

3.2.5 Judiciary procedures:

3.2.5.1 A judiciary is to be formed at the pre-championship meeting and will consist of two executive members of the QSS 10-12 years RL committee and an independent team official who is a current teacher.

3.2.5.2 In the absence of two executive, vacancies will be filled from the following in order:

i) Members of the QSS 10-12 years RL committee (i.e. regional delegates)

ii) Championship convenor

iii) Member of the championship organising committee who is a current teacher

iv) Other independent team official who is a current teacher

3.2.5.3 The judiciary will only meet to investigate an incident on receipt of an on-field incident report from the referee.

3.2.5.4 The player (along with the team manager) will have the opportunity to address the judiciary. The player has the right to appeal the penalty and if so, an additional independent person will be included to hear the appeal. This person will be invited to join the judiciary by the existing judiciary members.

3.2.5.5 The judiciary process will follow Education Queensland guidelines for student behaviour.

3.2.6 Wet Weather Procedures:

3.2.6.1 If one or two days are lost, that / those day's play becomes a nil-all draw for all teams and the games continue as per the draw.

- 3.2.6.2 If more than two days of play are lost, then any executive present and the championship convenor will decide how to proceed.

3.3 School Based Competitions

3.3.1 Development Cup state-wide knock out competition:

- 3.3.1.1 The Development Cup is a competition for students in P-6. Only players that are turning 11 or 12 years in the year of the competition are eligible to participate. No player turning 10 years nor, a player turning 13 years is eligible to play. A player must be enrolled with the participating school before playing in a Cup match.
- 3.3.1.2 Match conditions as per Mod Rules (Refer to QRL latest Edition).
- 3.3.1.3 Teams are limited to a squad of seventeen players per game. Replacement of players may occur at any time throughout the game – unlimited interchange is allowed.
- 3.3.1.4 Footwear must be worn in all games.
- 3.3.1.5 Competition shall be on a school basis. However, where a school cannot provide a team or where no team exists, schools may combine to form a composite team, provided that their combined year six enrolments do not exceed 90 students. Combined schools must belong to the same sport district or be neighbouring schools. Players must be bona fide registered pupils of the school, or one of the combination of schools, they represent.
- 3.3.1.6 No coaching shall take place during an actual competition match. The official team “runner” is the only person permitted to enter the field of play at any time unless the match referee directs otherwise.
- 3.3.1.7 All teams must be accompanied by a teacher from the school or group of schools where applicable, and if this does not occur, that team will automatically lose the match by forfeit.
- 3.3.1.8 Each competition match must be of two halves, each of 20 minutes. Half time for all matches will be five minutes, unless otherwise agreed to by the two competing schools.
- 3.3.1.9 There will be no time off for injury in any match. If more than 20 minutes of play is lost due to a major injury to a player, and the scores are level, the Development Cup Rules to determine the winner will be applied.
- 3.3.1.10 In the event of a colour clash, the convenor in attendance will, by the toss of a coin, determine which school will wear alternate colours.
- 3.3.1.11 Numbers must be clearly visible of jerseys for all teams competing and there should be no duplication of any numbers.
- 3.3.1.12 Every endeavour should be made to have all competition matches controlled by nationally accredited QRL referees and touch judges. Matches from group final stage onwards will not take place in the absence of a suitably qualified referee.
- 3.3.1.13 At all competition matches, an adult with current first aid and/or sports medicine qualifications must be in attendance, and must also remain in an accessible position adjacent to the playing field to provide immediate assistance if required throughout a match. The designated home team must also ensure that a means of communication to emergency services (e.g. mobile telephone) is available at all times on the sideline during a match. No competition match will take place in the absence of a suitably qualified person.

3.3.1.14 If a match is tied after the normal period of play, the winner will be determined on the following basis:

- i) Most tries, then (if equal)
- ii) First try scored, then (if no tries)
- iii) Most penalties received, then (if equal)
- iv) First penalty received

3.3.1.15 If the competition final is tied after the normal period of play, the teams will be declared joint winners of the Development Cup and two sets of medallions will be awarded.

3.3.2 Metropolitan finals:

3.3.2.1 The Brisbane metropolitan finals will be conducted under the authority of the Brisbane Primary School Rugby League Committee.
